"Cherries and Chickens" Ashland Rancher's Slogan

The Portland Journal of "recent" date has an interesting story relating to the ranching experiences of William Tavener of the Buena Vista orchards. This is written by Mrs. John H. Dill of this city, and tells of the advancement this well known man has made on his 30 acre tract one-fourth mile out of Ashland, 15 acres of which is planted to orchard.

After 16 years' experience Mr. Tavener claims his slogan is "Cherries and Chickens." His knowledge of chemistry has been of much value in handling his orchard, which is a red clay and dry farming proposition. Mr. Tavener after much experimenting, has worked out what he considers the best cultivation for this soil. The orchard has not been cultivated since May. He only cultivates after a very hard rain and thinks too much cultivation of this kind of soil results in a fine mulch that requires continual stirring to prevent capillary action and packing which will not result with a coarser mulch and less stirring of soil.

Mr. Tavener has a banner apple crop this year, and has raised apples that measure 1½ inches around. In 1905 he received the silver medal for peaches at the American Exposition and Oriental Fair at Portland. This year he gathered 500 pounds of cherries off of one Royal Anne tree, and has several that run close to that yield. He has come to the conclusion that on this kind of soil with cultivation he prefers that the order of adaptability of fruit is cher-

THE FLAVOR LASTS SO DOES THE PRICE!

Camel CIGARETTES

18 cents a package

If you want to know what rare and unusual enjoyment Camels provide smoke them in comparison with any cigarette in the world at any price!

CAMELS are a cigarette revelation any way you consider them! Take quality, or refreshing flavor and fragrance; or, that wonderful mellow-mild-smoothness you never before got in a cigarette smoke! Yet Camels are so full-bodied and so full-of-satisfaction you marvel that so much delight could be put into a cigarette!

Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos makes them so irresistibly appetizing! And, the blend explains why it is possible for you to smoke Camels liberally without tiring your taste! You will prefer Camels to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

You'll realize pretty quick, too, that among the many reasons you smoke Camels is their freedom from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or unpleasant cigarette odor!

Once you know Camels you won't take much stock in premiums, coupons or gifts! You'll prefer Camel quality!
